Saving Your Future

Poonam Bhatia has been working in Financial Services for over seven years as a Financial Educator. Her passion is helping families/individuals make their lives better by sharing with them the basic concepts and strategies of financial services so they can become informed consumers.

Poonam is partaking in a national campaign for financial literacy. Their mission is “education & solutions”

Please join us on Monday May 15th, 2017 as we come together to learn about how money works, basic principles of a financial foundation and walk away as an informed consumer on financial services!
